

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Necmi BEŞER

He started to work for Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Affairs in as researcher at South Eastern Anatolia Research Institute. Then he worked as a rice breeder, and agronomist and as Director of Trakya Agricultural Research Institute 1990-2013. During his work at Trakya Research Institute, he registered more than 30 rice varieties as a project leader or project researcher. Working as a Director, researches on plant breeding, agronomy, quality, pest management and economy in rice, wheat, barley, oats, canola, safflower, flax, sunflower, soybean, forage crops were carried out at Trakya Agricultural Research Institute. Since 2013, He has been working for Trakya University as Assoc. Prof. Dr. and also working as General Director of small R&D company located at University Technopark.